

Intact Insurance Company

Seasonal Occupancy Clause

This endorsement changes the Policy. Please read it carefully.

Attached to and forming part of the following forms:

Building and Contents Broad Form BF02

Building and Contents Named Perils Form NP02

Permission is granted for the building(s) described to be or become and remain vacant or unoccupied during the normal non-operating season without notice to the Insurer.

It is a condition precedent to this permission that the building(s) shall:

- 1) Have the doors and windows securely closed and locked;
- 2) Be clear of all rubbish within and around the buildings(s) and premises;
- 3) Will be completely winterized.

Failure of the Insured to comply with any or all of these conditions shall render this Seasonal Occupancy Clause null and void.

Warning! Please read your policy as certain perils may not apply during vacancy or unoccupancy.

Except as other provided in this endorsement, all terms, provisions and conditions of the policy shall remain unchanged.