

Intact Insurance Company

Theft from a Vehicle Limitation Endorsement (90)

If this endorsement is shown on your Coverage Summary page, the section Personal Property with Special Limits of Insurance is amended to include:

Theft of personal property from the passenger compartment of a motor vehicle up to $1,500 in all. In the event that you are away from your principal residence for more than a minimum of 2 consecutive nights, we will increase this Special Limit of Insurance to $2,500 provided there are visible signs of forcible entry.

“Passenger compartment” means the interior of the vehicle but does not include any fully enclosed compartment attached to or forming part of the vehicle and used solely for the purpose of holding personal property.

All other limits, terms, conditions, provisions, definitions and exclusions shall have full force and effect.